"I specialize in helping business partners work better together," says NeTisha. "I grew up in an entrepreneur household, where my parents were both personal and professional partners, and saw firsthand how relationships and communication can make or break a small business." In this talk, learn the fundamentals of creating successful business partnerships, applicable to all types and stages of co-ownership.

NeTisha DeLima was born and raised in Hilo. She is currently a business coach and referral marketing consultant for Asentiv Hawaii, the co-owner and founder of HIL Maintenance, and a real estate investor. She brings real experience and understanding along with education and training of what it takes to grow, cultivate, and nurture businesses on the Island of Hawai'i. Tish's passion is guiding business owners through the steps of entrepreneurship.
