BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES

TOPIC

Developing Capacities for Walking a Path of Service

SPEAKER

Chris S. Cholas
Community Advocate

WHEN October 18, 2018
Third Thursday from 12:00^{pm} to 1:00^{pm}

WHERE Office of the Prosecuting Attorney
655 Kilauea Avenue, Hilo HI 96720

"Achieving world peace requires looking at leadership in a new way," says Chris. "We need to be willing to replace traditional concepts of leadership with capacities that center on service." In this talk, discover how walking a path of service can have far-reaching effects and how strengthening capacities for service within our community can make the world a better, more peaceful place.

Chris S. Cholas earned a master's degree in Education Extension from New Mexico State University. He lived with his family in Puerto Rico and Belize working on community service projects. Since moving to Hawai'i in 1997, Chris has served as coordinator for an elderly blind program and as a disability rights advocate. He currently volunteers with local programs serving persons with disabilities and supports Ruhi Institute activities in East Hawai'i.
