MYERS-BRIGGS:

To Better Understand Yourself and Others

The Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) is the most widely used personality assessment in the world. It reveals why you and others behave as you do and how to communicate and interact more effectively with your family, friends, and co-workers.

THIS WORKSHOP IS FOR ANYONE WHO WANTS TO:

- ✓ Understand and appreciate your preferences.
- ✓ Enhance your performance as a team member and leader.
- ✓ Better utilize the motivations and strengths of others.
- ✓ Dramatically improve your communication and connection with others.

Joan Shafer is a management consultant and group facilitator who specializes in the design, delivery, and implementation of personal growth, leadership development, team cohesion, and transformation programs for corporations and senior executives. She provides a wealth of talent to her clients across the country and here at home in Hawaii. Joan has been described as "a very perceptive and insightful assessor. She provides both clients and colleagues with clear interpretations of leadership assessment tools, enabling the assessed individuals to increase self-awareness and performance as leaders."

$65 tuition (includes MBTI assessment)
