Finding Solutions, Growing Peace

"Tools to Transform Conflict" Training Series

BASIC MEDIATION TRAINING

How can mediation skills help you?

- ❖ Learn to manage & resolve conflict
- ❖ Communicate more effectively at work & at home
- ❖ Become a better negotiator & problem-solver
- ❖ Increase your value in the workplace
- ❖ Contribute to conflict resolution in our community

This 32-hour training offers instruction in the process of mediation and how to apply advanced communication skills to help parties resolve differences. People in conflict often focus on each other as the problem, going head to head. Mediation helps people focus on the issues, so they can see they have a joint problem to solve.

Learn a variety of conflict resolution and prevention techniques in this interactive training—through lecture, group discussion, hands-on exercises, and mediation simulation practice. Whether you want to improve your communication skills or become a volunteer mediator at Ku'ikahi, this training gives you the tools you need to start resolving conflict in peaceful, lasting ways. All backgrounds and personality types are welcome!
