Third Thursday from 12:00^{pm} to 1:00^{pm}

WHERE Office of the Prosecuting Attorney
655 Kilauea Avenue, Hilo HI 96720

"While seeking racial justice and working toward fair and equitable interactions, it's important to see our own unconscious biases," says Kimberly. "These unconscious 'default settings' can get in the way of enacting our own beliefs and values." In this talk, learn tips to recognize, acknowledge, and work with your own and others' deeply engrained stereotypes and how to kindly help when others are acting upon them.

Kimberly Dark consulted in conflict resolution and facilitation for over 20 years. She completed mediator certification with the National Conflict Resolution Center, served on the Advisory Board of San Diego Mediation Center, and served as the principal for Current Change Consulting. A sociologist and award-winning author, she currently writes, teaches, and performs worldwide. Kimberly lives in lower Puna.
