

BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES

TOPIC

Peace Begins at Home: Life Skills for Exploring Options

SPEAKER

Evelyn Pacheco
Retired Business Owner and Mediator

WHEN      December 21, 2017
Third Thursday from 12:00<sup>pm</sup> to 1:00<sup>pm</sup>

WHERE      Office of the Prosecuting Attorney
655 Kilauea Avenue, Hilo HI 96720

"I want people to know what choices are available before leaping into long term arrangements," says Evelyn. "I am 78 years old and can share many reasons why order in one's paperwork and exploring options goes together. In mediation this is especially important; making the wrong decision without having explored all the options can cause pain for a lifetime to all involved." In this talk, learn how knowing your options and managing your home life and files can increase peace.

Evelyn Pacheco is a professionally trained volunteer mediator with Ku'ikahi Mediation Center since 1994, with a focus on divorce and/or child visitation cases. She was a realtor for over 35 years, has been involved with income tax preparation for over 40 years, and is currently an AARP Income Tax Preparation Volunteer.
