ANNUAL REPORT
July 1, 2017 - June 30, 2018

“Being a peer mediator is helpful and takes a long time to master. I have been training and I can help others with their problems. I had to get peer mediation from others when I had a conflict and we resolved it together.”

Our Vision
A peaceful community where people routinely seek common ground.

Our Mission
We empower people to come together—to talk and to listen, to explore options, and to find their own best solutions.

To achieve this mission, we offer mediation, facilitation, and training to strengthen the ability of diverse individuals and groups to resolve interpersonal conflicts and community issues.

Our Values
Communication • Collaboration • Confidentiality • Courtesy • Competence

YOUR SUPPORT...

Assists People in Conflict to Find Their Own Best Solutions

Mediation is a self-empowering, flexible process that allows people to arrive at enduring resolutions to conflicts. Neutral third parties (the mediators) aid participants to systematically work through the issues to reach mutually satisfying solutions.

“Ku’ikahi Mediation Center has assisted us twice in the past and both times they helped resolve long contested disputes in just a few hours (could have taken years in court) and saved us thousands in litigation costs. I believe that they provide a wonderful service to our community and without them a lot of individuals and businesses would find it virtually impossible to find a sense of ‘fairness’ in their litigation and disagreements. One opposing lawyer once told me that there is no such thing as a ‘fair deal’ because it’s all a matter of opinion, but Ku’ikahi made me feel like I received that.”

Helps Facilitate Group Meetings on Important Issues

Facilitation creates a climate that invites creative thinking, protects individuals from criticism, and generates ideas so the group can reach its goals.

“The facilitator from Ku’ikahi was very engaged in preparing for our meeting and was especially astute at managing the sometimes emotional dynamics of the group during our half-day meeting. She recognized when breaks were needed to keep people engaged and to diffuse the tension. We were able to meet our objective and keep to our tight schedule even while allowing time for people to be heard.”

Gives People the Skills They Need to Prevent and Resolve Conflict

When community members learn communication and conflict resolution skills, they can become ambassadors for peace in our families, schools, neighborhoods, workplaces, and beyond.

“This [Basic Mediation Training] program has moved me forward in a positive direction. Throughout the 32-hour course the instructors made participants feel heard. I was deeply touched by the mission to bring peace to our community. I will and have already used the techniques to listen better and communicate with a softer tone in my personal and work life.”
Ku’ikahi conducted peer mediation activities at 3 elementary schools in 2017-2018: Keonepoko, Mountain View, and Volcano School of Arts & Sciences

188 youth received 10 student basic mediation trainings supported by 33 faculty/staff and school volunteers.

I AM PROUD TO BE A PEER MEDIATOR BECAUSE...

• I can help people who do not know how to solve a conflict.
  • I can help others and gain their trust.
• I can help my friends and family if they have a problem.
  • It can make me more kind.
  • It is fun solving problems and cool too.
• I help people solve their problem without any fighting.

THINGS I HAVE LEARNED AS A PEER MEDIATOR...

• I learned a new way to handle conflict. I learned that if I have a problem, I can ask for mediation.
  • I can help people. I can talk to people. I can work with a partner better.
• That you can’t always solve a problem but it’s not hard to try and people will help if you have a problem.
  • It is fun. It helps a lot. It changes things.
• I have learned that we can help other people when they’re fighting over something.
• To not take sides no matter what. To help people with a problem. To care, not to be mean but be nice.
• I learned what Peer Mediator is. I learned what GABCD is. I learned that peer mediating can be fun.
  • Listen. Understand. Rules.
  • Don’t tell people what you talk about because it is private information.
  • Being nice, how to be a peer mediator and how to solve conflicts.
  • Peace is easier. Being the good guy isn’t so bad. It is fun being a peer mediator.

WAYS I HAVE IMPROVED MY COMMUNICATION AND BEHAVIOR...

• I raise my hand more often when I need help. I am calmer and not as scrunched up.
  • I can speak with people privately. Kinder.
• I have learned to be very respectful. I have learned that to solve a problem you need to be kind and neutral.
  • I’m able to talk to people if I have a problem. I’m better at communicating.
  • Being nice and not bothering anyone.
• I improved my behavior by being more focused. I improved my communication by not being shy.
  • Don’t get angry take breaths.
  • I am more patient.
  • To talk in front of people. I don’t talk back to my parents as much.
  • I am nicer. I talk better.

A TRIBUTE TO JEFF MELROSE
Ku’ikahi Board President 2016 -2017

Jeff Melrose joined Ku’ikahi’s board in 2009. He became our vice president in 2014 and president in 2016. Jeff brought his sharp mind, big heart, collaborative approach, and strategic, big picture thinking to our organizational conversations. He also ran wired efficient and on-time meetings!

Jeff advocated for and truly appreciated all of our professionally trained volunteer mediators and apprentices. He spoke often in our board meetings about how crucial the mediators are to changing the lives of our clients for the better. Jeff knew firsthand how much our volunteers assist community members to seek and find common ground.

I’m hoping you had a chance to meet Jeff. He was the board member most likely to be found at our brown bag lunch series or various educational programs. Jeff was a strong advocate for skills-building efforts to empower adult and youth learning in Hawai‘i. He believed deeply in giving people the tools they need to communicate effectively, engage in civil discourse, and endeavor to resolve conflicts and other sticky situations.

In addition to his involvement with Ku’ikahi, Jeff and his good works touched many lives in the state of Hawai‘i and beyond. Jeff was raised in Makawao, Maui, and lived on Hawai‘i Island for over 25 years. He held an M.A. in Urban and Regional Planning from University of Hawai‘i at Manoa and a B.A. in Anthropology from Western Washington. He was a graduate scholar at the East-West Center in Pacific Island Studies.

Jeff was a practicing land manager and planner for large land owners, including Kamehameha Schools and Amfac Hawai‘i. He ran Island Planning, a Hilo-based land use consultant firm that was involved in project permitting, master planning, and community plans. Co-author of the Statewide Agriculture Land Use Baseline 2015, Jeff was a part-time lecturer in the Geography Department at the University of Hawai‘i at Hilo in land use planning.

Jeff was trained as a mediator with particular interest in community and environmental conflict resolution. He was a partner in the dispute resolution firm of Accord 3.0, based in Honolulu with national and international affiliates. Jeff was the past president of the Hilo Downtown Improvement Association and Hawai‘i Island Chamber of Commerce, and he was a member of the Hawai‘i Island Advisory Council of the Hawaiian Islands Land Trust.

Jeff died on July 25, 2017 at Hospice of Hilo Pohai Malama Care Center, after a bout with bile duct cancer. He was 65. Our hearts go out to Jeff’s many friends and family members, especially his wonderful wife, Julie Hugo, who volunteered to fulfill Jeff’s remaining term on Ku’ikahi’s board of directors.

Aloha ‘oe, Jeff. We miss you very much.

Julie Mitchell
