

When you give, GET ART!

(while supplies last)

One-of-a-kind fabric creations from award-winning designer Elizabeth Kent of Vested Interest Hawaii

Besides making art, Elizabeth is a mediator, facilitator, and trainer in conflict resolution. With this extremely generous donation to Ku'ikahi, Elizabeth puts her art on the table as a challenge match to increase giving and support "Finding Solutions, Growing Peace."

View samples of her work at <https://www.vestedinteresthawaii.com/>

When you give $50...	You get 2 cloth face masks (fair market value of $13)
When you give $75...	You get 3 cloth face masks (fair market value of $39)
When you give $125...	You get an elegant fabric scarf + 1 mask (fair market value from $35 to $61)
When you give $250...	You get a colorful lap quilt (fair market value of $100) OR a jacket handcrafted from vintage kimono (fair market value from $108 to $164)
When you give $500...	You get a jacket handcrafted from vintage kimono (fair market value from $168 to of $225)

To receive Elizabeth's creations, enter your donation amount,
then click on "□ Write us a comment"
and type in desired gift from the list above
(under "Your comment")

Please note that, in accordance with IRS guidelines, goods or services with a fair market value must be declared. For example, if you give $500, and the value of your jacket is $200, the tax deductible portion of your gift is $300.