

Randy Kurohara

Randy Kurohara is the Executive Director of Community First Hawai'i. He served for 8 years with Mayor Billy Kenoi in various roles including Director of Department of Research & Development, Deputy Managing Director, and Managing Director.

Mr. Kurohara is also a long time Hawaii Island small business owner that includes Creative Arts Hawaii and Aloha Grown. He graduated from the University of Hawaii at Manoa with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing.

Mr. Kurohara is member and past President of the Rotary Club of South Hilo; director and past President of the Japanese Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Hawaii; board member of the Kona Kohala Chamber of Commerce; Vice President of the Hawaii Island Chamber of Commerce; board member of the Hawaii Health System Corporation's East Hawaii Regional Board; board member of the Salvation Army; board member of Keahole Center for Sustainability; and emeritus board member of the Boys and Girls Club of the Big Island.